MARKET OUTLOOK

TECHNICAL

The market edged higher, driven mainly by VIC and VHM, while gains spread reasonably well across other sectors. Liquidity fell below its 20-session average, signalling some caution as the index approaches the 1,780 zone. Support and resistance stand at 1,700 and 1,780 respectively.

SCENARIOS

Short-term scenarios for the next 2 weeks:

- Bullish (20%): The market breaks above 1,800 points as market breadth improves markedly
- Base case (65%): Trading is expected within the 1,700 – 1,780 range as divergence persists
- Bearish (15%): The market falls back to the 1,660 zone with no large-cap group holding the index up

STRATEGY

Investors should treat the headline index as a reference only, given how heavily the market is dominated by the Vingroup stocks. Caution remains warranted in the short term, but opportunities persist in sectors still attracting flows, such as Exporters, Real Estate, Industrial Park Real Estate and Retail. Risk-averse investors should favour low-beta names with high dividend payouts and low debt. The most suitable short-term approach is range trading: buy as prices consolidate near support and sell into strong rallies.
