Exploring Vietnam
Market Insight

Shinhan Securities

Daily report

Market Summary:

Cooling down the decline?

▶ On the Monday's trading session, the market was gloomy as the red still spread most of the industry groups. The pessimistic and cautious sentiment of the market caused many investors to stay on the sidelines to observe market fluctuations. However, bottom-fishing demand in the financial group tickers reversed the market trend, helping to balance the market at the end of the session. Trading volume remained lower than the 20-day average.

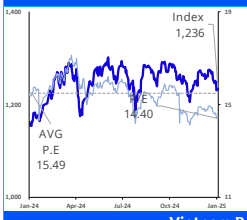

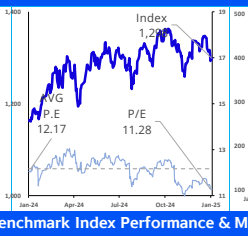

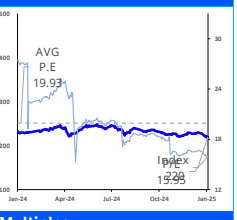

▶ At the end of the trading session, the VN-Index increased by 5.17 points (+0.42%), reaching 1,235.65 points; the HNX-Index increased by 0.13 points (+0.06%), reaching 219.62 points. Market volume reached VND 12.12 trillion, equivalent to about 519.7 million shares traded. Foreign investors were net sold of VND 72.1 billion, focusing on FPT, VPB, VRE.

▶ TCB (+1.71%), VCB (+0.55%), HPG (+1.37%) were the three stocks that contributed the most to the green color of the market. HVN (-2.99%), VPB (-1.08%), NVL (-4.33%) were the three stocks that took away the most points from the market.

▶ Transportation, F&B, and Raw Materials were the industry groups that contributed the most to the green color of the market in today's session. Typical stocks: MVN, MCH, HPG.

▶ Technical perspective: VN-Index traded below reference throughout the morning session. When approaching the 1,220 point area, the purchase side appeared, helping VN-Index reverse the contemporary decline and up by nearly 13 points. With the principle of higher bottoms, VN-Index is showing positive reactions around the 1,200 - 1,220 point area (buyers regain control), with improved liquidity in the afternoon session. Compared to the last week recovery, the market recovered with a wider range, better liquidity and successfully tested the support area 3 times. In a positive scenario, VN-Index will recover from this support area to test the old peak of 1,300. In a more negative scenario, VN-Index continues to decrease sharply with a wide candle body, losing the uptrend on both daily and weekly charts. Then the next support will be around 1,180-1,200 point area.

Strategy: The market shows positive signals when approaching the 1,200-1,220 point area. For short-term trading, investors can consider disbursing around this area and gradually taking profits when approaching 1,300 points. With a holding investment strategy, investors only strongly disburse when VN-Index successfully breaks out the 1,300 point area.
