Major stocks market

- The Nasdaq Composite recorded its highest intraday close since August 2022. McCarthy and Biden met at the White House on Monday night and continued to discuss the debt ceiling with a rather positive attitude. These negotiations will take place in just 10 days and the results will be available by June 1 at the latest. Investors are also watching a flurry of first-quarter earnings from retailers Lowe's, BJ's Wholesale and Dick's Sporting Goods.
- Stoxx600 rose just 0.01%, concerns about higher interest rates are weighing on European stocks after ECB President Lagarde said "We're not done with the current data" on rate hikes.
- The Shanghai Composite rose 0.39% from US President Biden's comments on expectations of improving China's relationship with the United States when he said he expected relations with China to improve "very quickly" after controversy earlier this year. Nikkei continues to climb, gaining 0.55% to hit a new 32-year high. The government is considering an additional budget plan of 3 trillion yen ($22 billion) per year from fiscal year 2024 to 2026 for measures to tackle the falling birth rate.
- Brent oil prices rose 0.5% to $75.99 a barrel on Monday along with rising U.S. gasoline prices and a forecast for increased oil demand in the second half of the year, while supplies from Canada and OPEC+ fell in recent weeks.
